

arianeGROUP

SUPPLIER ETHICS CHARTER

#spaceenablers

SUPPLIER ETHICS CHARTER

Within ArianeGroup (or the Group)¹, we conduct our business with integrity and pursue the highest standards of Ethics and (CSR) Corporate Social Responsibility, which we consider to be a crucial part of business excellence. We aim to foster sustainable growth and to build a better future for our Employees and our Stakeholders.

We are thus determined to work with Suppliers and Subcontractors (hereafter designated by “the Supplier”) who share our ethical values and our ways of working. To ensure the highest standards of responsibility and integrity throughout our supply chain, we adapted our Ethics Charter in this Supplier Ethics Charter.

Our commitments are available in detail in the Corporate Social Responsibility section of our website (<https://www.arianegroup/en/who-we-are/csr>).

We request that the Supplier commits to complying with the Supplier Ethics Charter and cascade these values and principles throughout its own supply chain.

¹-Unless stated otherwise, any reference to ArianeGroup or the Group refers to ArianeGroup Holding, ArianeGroup SAS, ArianeGroup GmbH, and their Subsidiaries, a subsidiary being defined as any entity in which ArianeGroup Holding directly or indirectly, holds more than 50% of the shares and/or voting rights.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. PEOPLE

PAGE 4

- 1.1 Recognising Human Rights
 - 1.2 Ensuring workplace health and safety
 - 1.3 Encouraging open dialogue and speak up
 - 1.4 Offering equal opportunities and supporting personal development and training
 - 1.5 Protecting privacy and personal data
-

2. ASSETS AND INFORMATION

PAGE 6

- 2.1 Protecting assets and information
 - 2.2 Respecting property rights
 - 2.3 Complying with defense regulations
 - 2.4 Maintaining accurate records
 - 2.5 Trading securities in good faith
-

3. RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS PRACTICES

PAGE 8

- 3.1 Committing to quality and safety
 - 3.2 Zero tolerance for corruption
 - 3.3 Gifts and business courtesies
 - 3.4 Managing conflicts of interest
 - 3.5 Competing and operating fairly
 - 3.6 Complying with import and export laws
-

4. SUSTAINABILITY

PAGE 10

- 4.1 Establishing responsible business standards at every level
 - 4.2 Conducting responsible sourcing of minerals
 - 4.3 Supporting community development
 - 4.4 Respecting the environment and minimizing the environmental impact
-

5. IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SUPPLIER ETHICS CHARTER AND CONSEQUENCES OF VIOLATION

PAGE 11

- 5.1 Commitment and accountability
 - 5.2 Management System and Continuous Improvement
 - 5.3 Compliance with the Charter
 - 5.4 Whistleblowing system
-

1. PEOPLE

1.1. Recognising Human Rights

The Supplier, internally in its own company and throughout its supply chain, respects universal and inalienable human rights and fundamental employment rights as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the International Labour Organization (ILO) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

The Supplier respects personal dignity and privacy, and the rights of the individual. The Supplier does not tolerate any form of child labor, forced labor, modern slavery, and human trafficking.

The Supplier complies with all labor legislation applicable in the countries where it does business, along with the ILO conventions standards. It ensures that all agreements on working hours are respected, with Employees receiving an appropriate salary and benefits for their work.

Supplier is expected to ensure the workplace is free from any form of harassment, whether moral, physical, visual or verbal.

1.2. Ensuring workplace health and safety

The Supplier provides a safe and healthy working environment for all Employees. It maintains the highest standards of physical, mental and social well-being for its workers through relevant prevention measures, training and communication, and fosters improvements through workers' health and safety committees.

The Supplier respects applicable health and safety laws and implements an occupational health, safety, and risk-prevention policy in the workplace.

1.3. Encouraging open dialogue and speak up

The Supplier develops continuous, open and transparent social dialogue with Employees and Employees' representatives, in particular through appropriate collective bargaining structures.

The Supplier promotes a speak-up culture where Employees can express themselves freely and report any situation or behavior in breach of the law or general human rights or ethics principles as described in this Charter.

The Supplier provides its Employees with channels for raising legal or ethical issues or concerns without fear of retaliation, in line with the laws and regulations in force about the protection of whistleblowers. The Supplier takes action to prevent, detect, and correct any retaliatory actions.

1.4. Offering equal opportunities and supporting personal development and training

The Supplier supports diversity, provides equal opportunities for all Employees and does not engage in any form of discrimination.

The Supplier develops the skills and know-how of their Employees, both for their individual benefit and for collective success.

1.5. Protecting privacy and personal data

The Supplier always respects and protects the privacy of its Employees, Customers, Suppliers and Third Parties. The Supplier complies with any applicable laws and regulations concerning how individual personal data is collected, processed and used, including where necessary the European Union (EU) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

When handling ArianeGroup Employees' personal data, the Supplier takes all precautions, technical and organizational measures to preserve their confidentiality and security and in particular to prevent them from being distorted, damaged, communicated to unauthorized third parties or unduly transferred outside the EU.

The Group's Data Protection Officer should be contacted for any query.

2. ASSETS AND INFORMATION

2.1. Protecting assets and information

Protecting our property, our information, our competencies and our know-how, as well as any assets entrusted to us, is key to build trust and maintain our competitiveness.

The Supplier exercises care and diligence to ensure that all applicable security and information systems security requirements are met and that assets, whether tangible or intangible, are protected against theft, damage, misuse or improper disposal. In particular, information and information systems are managed and hosted with the appropriate level of security.

The Supplier ensures adequate protection against cyber attacks and collaborates with the Group to prevent and address cyber threats. Confidential and Proprietary Information must not be used for any purpose other than the business purpose for which it was provided and should be handled in accordance with the terms of its disclosure.

2.2. Respecting property rights

The Supplier promotes respect of both physical and intellectual property rights. The Supplier does not infringe the intellectual property rights of third parties, such as patents, trade secrets, trademarks, copyrights and other proprietary information.

2.3. Complying with defense regulations

The Supplier ensures compliance with all applicable national security regulations.

Any exchange or transmission of nationally restricted, classified information or material strictly complies with the relevant regulations and security process.

ASSETS AND INFORMATION

2.4. Maintaining accurate records

The Supplier creates accurate records and does not alter any record entry to conceal or misrepresent an underlying transaction. All records, regardless of format, made or received as evidence of a business transaction, fully and accurately represent the transaction or event being documented. Records are retained based on the applicable retention requirements.

2.5. Trading securities in good faith

The Supplier and its personnel never use non-publicly disclosed information obtained in the course of their business relationship with the Group as the basis for trading or for enabling others to trade in the securities of any company.

3. RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS PRACTICES

3.1. Committing to quality and safety

The Supplier complies with all applicable quality-control standards and procedures and delivers products and services that meet Customer requirements for safety, high quality, cost and time effectiveness, and innovative technology with a continuous improvement mindset.

The Supplier develops, implements and maintains methods and processes appropriate to its products to eliminate the risk of the introduction of counterfeit parts and materials into deliverable products. Effective processes are also in place to detect counterfeit parts and materials, to provide notification to recipients of counterfeit products, and to exclude them from the deliverable products.

3.2. Zero tolerance for corruption

The Supplier must comply with applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws and regulations, and is committed to respect values of honesty and integrity. Any form of corruption, bribery, influence peddling, extortion, or embezzlement is strictly prohibited:

- The Supplier must never offer, attempt to offer, authorize or promise any payment or anything of value to a public official or other persons for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business or gaining an improper advantage. Likewise, the Supplier must never solicit or accept a bribe or kickback from a public official or another person.
- The prohibition includes offering or paying of facilitation payments to Public Officials to speed up or obtain routine governmental actions.

The Supplier exerts reasonable due diligence to prevent and detect corruption in all business arrangements, including partnerships, joint ventures, offset agreements, and the hiring of intermediaries such as agents or consultants.

3.3. Gifts and business courtesies

The Supplier strictly refrains from offering, promising or granting as well as receiving any gift (including non-monetary gifts, invitations, services, employment or any other advantage) either with the intent to influence a business relation or which could be interpreted as an attempt to exert such influence.

Suppliers must ensure that the offering or receipt of any gift or business courtesy is permitted by law and regulation, and that these exchanges do not violate the rules and standards of the recipient's organisation, and are consistent with reasonable marketplace customs and practices.

Granting any gift of money or equivalent (voucher, gift-card), any trip or all-inclusive package to an ArianeGroup Employee is prohibited.

RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS PRACTICES

3.4. Managing conflicts of interest

The Supplier avoids all conflicts of interest or situations giving the appearance of a potential conflict of interest, including in its dealings with ArianeGroup.

The Supplier shall provide notification to all affected parties in the event that an actual or potential conflict of interest arises. This includes a conflict between the interests of ArianeGroup and personal interests or those of close relatives, friends or associates.

3.5. Competing and operating fairly

The Supplier adheres to applicable laws that regulate competition, in particular to anti-trust laws. It does not fix prices or rig bids with competitors.

The Supplier does not knowingly seek to gain any advantage of any kind by acting fraudulently, deceiving people or making false claims, nor allows anyone else to do so.

3.6. Complying with import and export laws

The Supplier ensures compliance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import and export of parts, components and technical data that may limit business with certain countries, corporations or persons.

The Supplier provides truthful and accurate information and obtains export licenses where necessary.

Moreover, the Supplier ensure compliance to applicable regulations relating to money-laundering, embargoes, economic sanctions or other trade restrictions on goods, services, software or technology.

4. SUSTAINABILITY

4.1. Establishing responsible business standards at every level

The Supplier is committed to integrating the Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility principles in its strategy as key elements of business excellence in order to foster sustainable growth and be a trusted partner for all stakeholders.

The Supplier commits to exercising due diligence on his own supply chain, in line with applicable laws and international guidelines.

4.2. Conducting responsible sourcing of minerals

The Supplier commits to implementing all appropriate measures in its supply chain in order to guarantee that tin, tantalum, tungsten and gold do not originate from conflict-affected and high-risk areas (as defined by the (OECD) Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas).

4.3. Supporting community development

In so far as its means and capabilities allow, the Supplier promotes local initiatives for fair development of communities and territories, to benefit the areas in physical proximity to its sites or areas of impact. Where possible, it also contributes to the economic, social and educational well-being of local communities.

4.4. Respecting the environment and minimizing the environmental impact

In addition to complying with environmental laws and regulations, the Supplier manages environmental risks and minimizes the environmental impact of its activities, products and services. This includes the prevention of pollution and the efficient use of resources. To continuously improve environmental protection, the Supplier applies international standards and the associated relevant methodologies.

The Supplier strives to minimize environmental impact of products and services through the lifecycle while maximizing the benefits provides to customers and other stakeholders.

The supplier commits to implementing a company climate policy including carbon footprint reduction and climate adaptation to new predictable/ foreseen conditions.

When available, the supplier communicates to the Group its own carbon footprint and/or the environmental footprint of the products and services sold to the Group.

5. IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SUPPLIER ETHICS CHARTER AND CONSEQUENCES OF VIOLATION

5.1. Commitment and accountability

The Supplier is committed to conducting its business in a highly responsible way, in compliance with applicable international, national and local laws and regulations, contractual agreement and internationally recognized standards.

Additionally, the Supplier recognizes its responsibility to abide by the principles set out in the Supplier Ethics Charter and to comply with all its provisions.

The Group relies on the Supplier to ensure that the provisions defined in this Charter are also observed by its own suppliers and subcontractors and further down its supply chain. To this end, the Group encourages the Supplier to implement its own written policies.

The Supplier commits to exercising due diligence on its supply chain, in line with applicable laws, such as the German Act on Corporate Due Diligence Obligations in Supply Chains and the French duty of vigilance law, and international guidelines.

5.2. Management System and Continuous Improvement

The Supplier acknowledges that reaching the standards established in this Charter is a dynamic process and commits to continuously improving its operations.

Commensurate with the size and nature of its business, the Supplier has management systems in place to maintain effective governance and support compliance with laws, regulations, and the expectations directly expressed or inherent within this Supplier Ethics Charter. The Supplier maintains effective programs, to encourage its Employees to make ethical, values-driven choices in their business dealings.

In order to provide Managers and other Employees with an appropriate level of knowledge and understanding of the contents of this Supplier Ethics Charter, the applicable law and regulations as well as the generally recognized standards and their implementation in suitable processes, the Group and the Supplier establish suitable training and education courses appropriate to the size of the company.

Suppliers shall maintain documentation necessary to demonstrate conformance with or improvement plans towards the principles outlined in this Charter. This documentation may be reviewed by ArianeGroup upon mutual agreement.

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SUPPLIER ETHICS CHARTER AND CONSEQUENCES OF VIOLATION

5.3. Compliance with the Charter

Compliance with this Supplier Ethics Charter is a determining condition for ArianeGroup to contract with the Supplier.

In the event that the expectations of this Supplier Ethics Charter are not met, the business relationship may be reviewed and corrective action pursued subject to the terms of the related procurement contract(s).

Should the Supplier notice or suspect any breach of regulations, laws or the Supplier Ethics Charter, the Supplier must immediately notify the ArianeGroup contact person.

5.4. Whistleblowing system

The company's whistleblower system is available to collect alerts relating to suspected breach of applicable law or regulations or related to any situation or behavior conflicting to this Charter.

It grants a protection to the whistleblower, the facilitator and those linked to the whistleblower.

The reporter can submit his/her alert by using the dedicated website (<https://ag.1signal.net>), within the limits allowed by defense regulations.

We are committed to protecting whistleblowers and will not tolerate any direct or indirect retaliation, or attempted retaliation, against a person who speaks up in good faith and without direct financial compensation.

#spaceenablers

www.ariane.group

ARIANEGROUP

HEADQUARTERS:
51-61 ROUTE DE VERNEUIL
78131 LES MUREAUX - FRANCE

CONTACT INFORMATION

Ethics and Compliance department
Phone: +33 (0)1 39 06 12 34
ethics@ariane.group

RAISING AN ALERT:

<https://ag.1signal.net>